

TITLE The Impact of Race, Socioeconomic Status, and Educational Background on the Development of Girls as Leaders

RESEARCHER Tiffany M. Harmon
Department of Information and Library Sciences
Crown College (Minnesota)
Unpublished master's thesis: May 2017

OBJECTIVE The purpose of this study was to investigate the impact of race, socioeconomic status and educational background on the development of leadership behaviors in girls, and whether early interventions are needed to help mitigate these factors.